DID YOU KNOW?

- American with Disabilities Act Anniversary commemorates the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) into law in 1990 and is recognized annually on July 26th. This civil rights law made it illegal to discriminate against people with disabilities in areas like employment, transportation, public accommodation, communications, and access to state and local government programs/services.
- Independence Day, also known as the Fourth of July, commemorates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. It's a civil holiday that represents the birth of the United States of America as an independent nation.
